AppleShare 1.0 File Services: User Limits

This article has been archived and is no longer updated by Apple.

1. Users per server:

a. Logged on: 25 maximum

b. Registration file: virtually unlimited

2. Group capability:

a. Registration file: virtually unlimited

b. Group memberships per user: 15 maximum

c. Groups having special access privileges to a folder: 1 maximum Note that a different set of access privileges can be assigned to EVERYONE in addition to the group privileges

3. Servers per AppleTalk network:

-- Limited by LocalTalk only
for example, you could have 31 servers and 1 user

-- An AppleTalk internetwork connected by bridges could have a virtually unlimited number of Servers

4. Volumes per server:

a. SCSI: 7 devices

b. HD20: 2 devices

-- Limited only by the Macintosh operating system and hardware:
AppleShare can handle as many volumes as the Finder.

5. Groups per zone:

a. Logged on: 25 maximum

b. Registration file: virtually unlimited

6. Servers per zone:

-- Limited only by LocalTalk
for example, you could have 31 servers and 1 user

Published Date: Feb 18, 2012